CIRCULAR 30/2014

BOWLS SA ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING – 2014

We advise that the ninety (90) day notice period required in the Constitution under clauses 5.2.3 and 13.1 for nominations for election and for motions/ resolutions to be lodged for consideration at the Annual General Meeting has now expired.

It is confirmed that no additional nominations, apart from sitting members have been received. Their nominations are retained on file and there shall therefore be no vote at the AGM to elect Executive members.

The President together with his Executive have decided to cancel the workshop this year and move straight into the Annual General Meeting. The AGM will therefore commence at 11h00 on Saturday 30 August 2014 and should conclude at no later than 16h00. You are advised to inform your delegates to make their travel and accommodation arrangements accordingly. The Executive are of the opinion that this decision should reduce the districts costs to attend the AGM.

The papers etc required to be dispatched under clauses 12.3 and 13.2 of the Constitution shall be in your possession forty five (45) days before the AGM (17 July 2014).
