Johannesburg. - Seven nations are set to contest the African States Tournament at Edenvale BC, Ekurhuleni from September 9 – 15 – just Swaziland of the Zone V Bowls Confederation is missing; Malawi are sending only a men’s team.

The event will in future be held every two years, instead of annually; several nations have found it too difficult to afford a yearly trip or to host the event; a meeting after the event will decide the 2019 venue.

Teams entered (they had to confirm by July 31; too late for verification here) are Botswana, Kenya, Malawi, Namibia, South Africa, Zambia, Zimbabwe.

Last year South Africa’s men and women ended winners, as they usually do and Bowls SA president Kallie Haupt said at the time: “It was a pleasure to be a spectator during such a superb exhibition of bowls. Do not think the opposition was weak; our Proteas had to be at their best”- they were.

Final 2016 overall scores were: Men: SA 18, +62; Namibia 17, +107; Kenya 10, -49; Zimbabwe 8, -12, Botswana 7, -108; Women: SA 16, +76 Namibia 15, +35; Zimbabwe 12,
SA men’s team is much changed, with only young guns Brendan Ainley (NIBA) and Stephan de Jager (BOL) remaining; the women’s side is unchanged except for the retirement from international competition by Susan Nel. Bronwyn Webber (PNB) again plays singles; Esme Kruger (BGN), Elma Davis (EDB), Anneke Snyman (BOL) again appear; Gauteng North’s Vicky Frost makes her debut.

JBA’s skilful 2017 Gauteng Open Singles champion, George Lotter, in-form Francois Koen (BGN) and the young SA National Singles champions, Wayne Rittmuller (PNB) debut for the men.

No doubt there is a reason, but it may be disappointing the African players coming will not be this year able to again face champions and seasoned Proteas Morgan Muvhangu (SBA) and Prince Neluonde (JBA); another vet in Rudi Jacobs (NW) is not included this time.

I can see little reason to suggest South Africa will not again dominate – especially in the women’s event; none of the players selected is without considerable experience.

My guess, however, is Namibia may prove tough opponents all round; Kenya’s cheerful and decorative Mirrie Ndungu will be much admired after her forays in open competition in Australia.
• Skips: after delivery of each of their bowls.

Smoking (including artificial devices or e-cigarettes such as Twisp), the consumption of alcohol and the use of mobile phones are not allowed by players while play is in progress.

The overall men's and women's sides will be declared as the country accumulating most points in the four disciplines combined.

POINTS ARE AWARDED AS FOLLOWS:

The winner in each discipline shall score points equivalent to the number of teams competing. Subsequent placing in each event shall be reduced by one point for per placing.

MEN: GOLD - 7 points; SILVER - 6 points; BRONZE - 5 points; FOURTH - 4 points; FIFTH -3 points; SIXTH - 2 points; SEVENTH - 1 point;

WOMEN: GOLD - 6 points; SILVER - 5 points; BRONZE - 4 points; FOURTH - 3 points; FIFTH -2 points; SIXTH - 1 point;

The overall tournament position for each gender will be the combination of points accumulated in the various disciplines, should there be equality of points after all disciplines the country with the highest net total of shots will rank higher. If equality still prevails the total shots scored will be divided by the total shots scored against and

JBA EDGE THE SA MIXED PAIRS

BRONZES: Went to Mark and Lesley Beviss-Challinor (Boland) and Clinton and Yvonne Inglis (Port Natal). Sables hosted a successful tournament with Lynne Marnewick as convenor of an organising committee, assisted by John George, Tom Mcleajn, Mike Marnewick, Mark Petzer

WELL DONE: New faces all round for the medal winners of the Bowls SA Mixed Pairs 2017 with JBA's Andrew Barrow and Cheryl Edelkraut triumphing 21-17 over Protea Morgan Muvhango with Natasha Cooke (Sables)
Hello fellow bowlers and goodbye... all good things come to an end.

I have had the privilege to serve bowls at the highest level for the 12 years and consider myself the luckiest man on earth, having received nothing but kindness and encouragement from players, club and district officials during that time.

We find ourselves on the cusp of an important phase in the managing of this sport. On one hand government continues to play a major role in the implementation of transformation strategy, but escalating costs is strangling bowls; another major problem is filling administrative positions at club and district levels.

It is difficult indeed to predict the future as circumstances and changes are happening rapidly and outcomes becoming more unpredictable.

In spite of all these challenges I’m confident your new executive will have the expertise to take bowls forward - I wish all a successful term of office.

The past 12 years have enriched my life and I thank everyone for an opportunity to have served our wonderful sport.

Kallie Haupt -
President, Bowls South Africa

A requisition has been received by Bowls SA from JBA et al to convene a Special General Meeting. This requisition is in terms of clause 12.8 of the Bowls SA Constitution and a copy sent to each district that delegates may arrange requisite mandates.

The motion shall be placed before council on Saturday 26, August 2017; the workshop shall be suspended at 13:30 to convene the special meeting.

The motion relates to the Bowls South Africa Executive and reads:

Johannesburg Bowling Associations proposes that Clause 5.3.2 of the Constitution of Bowls South Africa, be changed to read:

'Separate ballots shall be held at the annual general meeting, for the positions below, in the order indicated. Prior to the Districts voting for the president and vice-president, those members of the executive who wish to stand for either of the positions, and who qualify in terms of Clauses 5.2.2.1 and 5.2.2.2 of the constitution of Bowls South Africa, will indicate their willingness to be elected.'

Those willing to stand for the positions must, prior to voting, give a short presentation on why they wish to stand and what they have achieved in the years they have been on the executive of Bowls South Africa to warrant being voted for:

5.3.2.7, 5.3.2.2, 5.3.2.3 (President, Vice-President, four members of the executive).

In support of JBA’s application are Sables, Gauteng North, Ekurhuleni and Sedibeng, whose presidents have signed to that effect.
New from Australia, the BOWLS EYE is a simple eye shaped transparent perspex disc featuring a number of concentric circles that can be used in the game of lawn bowls to accurately estimate the distance between the jack and surrounding bowls. At any time after the first two bowls have been delivered, a team member or marker can use the tool to efficiently and accurately gauge the state of the head. Supplied with a protective microfibre sleeve in choice of colours.

Law 23.3 (part of):
Examples of equipment or objects which, when used during an end, would not be deemed to be in breach of law 23.3 include cross-fingers and devices comprising concentric circles within a transparent frame which are held approximately waist high, and equipment or objects (such as a player’s foot) placed alongside or parallel to (but not directly between) the jack and the bowls.

ARE WE ALL ‘DYING ON OUR FEET’?

This article appeared in an overseas newspaper – it aims at golf, but it just as easily be applied to bowls ... have a read (Editor)

It’s just a sport, lads. Always remember that about golf. When they peg it up for the British Open next week, it can be a useful nugget to keep in mind. Not least if you need to fend off the crashing bore mansplaining you into calling it the Open Championship. Resist these dangerous fossils. These precious dweebs. These dreary fussbudgets.

Just a sport, golf. Not a religion, not a holy text. Not sacred. Not special. Just a sport. Played by human beings, all of them made of the same venal, flawed scumbaggery as play every other sport on the planet.

Golfers. Can’t listen to them, can’t wrap a hybrid around their polo necks. Never deliberately more than three sentences away from telling you something you already know. Forever taking outsized credit for a game that should be far more popular than it is. Never stopping to think that they might be the reason that one of the greatest sports ever conceived is dying on its feet.

Every statistic you see about golf these days makes for the sort of graph that causes a banker to tell the barman to leave the bottle. Participation rates? Down.

Viewership figures? Way down. Industry markers? Gone south. The world’s biggest sports company built a two-decade campaign around the two most marketable golfers in history and still couldn’t make the golf equipment game pay.

And so golf, a sport which never considered itself a world-stage kind of player before Tiger came along and gave it no choice in the matter, is carried along now by the belief systems of two distinct factions. For every earnest worrier about golf’s place among the nations of the sporting earth, there are clubhouses filled with old farts who are just fine with things the way they are.

The upshot is that every attempt made to shave some of the more fusty edges off golf is met with resistance, confusion and often barely-disguised contempt. Bigger holes, fewer rules, Golf Sixes, whatever else. Golf is St Augustine’s prayer adapted and updated, scrawled on a scorecard and pinned on the Hon Sec’s noticeboard. Make me modern, Lord – but not yet.

The Warwick Wealth Pollsmoor Classic Trips attracted 28 sides and reports the sponsors’ Douglas (Sandy) Street accompanied by Richard Filer. The weather knew just how to behave, the Cape having been lashed by the most severe storm in decades. However, two full days’ play was possible with three games on the first and two on the second day respectively. Competitors enjoyed an open drawn for the first match and thereafter strength versus strength. Teams from all over the Cape entered with a few from “over the mountains”. Nico (club vice-president) began proceedings by thanking Warwick Wealth. The lucky draw prizes were possibly the largest seen at bowls 50 draws took place ranging from liquor hampers to coffee machines, magnums of wine and wait for it … a competition pool table... with all accessories for the last draw, this generously donated by Adriaan Lourens (Soutie) the club president of Pollsmoor. Added to this were generous cash prizes for the top teams. Special mention must go to the team which ended last, but with two new novices - they held their heads up high. The tournament also saw an under-15 boys side enter, which ending in the middle - much tenacity and enjoyment derived from these lads. The winners came from Goodwood with a Durbanville trio in second spot.

Snow greeted the Warwick Wealth Worcester Open at Worcester Bowling Club reports Doug Street, was accompanied by finance guru Michael Feinberg. Teams from Oakdale, Constantia, Kleinmond, Hex River, Hermanus and a contingent of local talent took part.
The Warwick Wealth Money Shower event at The Bell Bowling Club on the KZN coast saw 48 bowlers play in the win-win tournament, where every player receives a cash prize on a superb winter afternoon, reports the sponsors Stuart Milligan, accompanied by Stuart McMurtrie. The drawn trips event consisted of two 10-end games, scored on a point per end which then related to the cash prize for each team. The initial round was drawn, the second round was winner versus winner and loser against. The home club’s Tina Barbour and team proved too strong for the rest of the field claiming top spot ahead of Renzo van Niekerk’s side. The rest of the field did not leave empty-handed as each team received prize money; an enjoyable afternoon was enjoyed by all participants. Warwick’s voucher winners were Dawie Schlebusch, Kevin Mullen, Ethne Holding, Ryan Keys, Rynier van Tonder.

A WEEK’S TOP BOWLS AT DURBAN WANDERERS

The 69th annual week-long popular Tournament at Durban Wanderers Bowls Club attracted 18 men’s and eight women’s fours, reports the sponsor’s regional sports controller Stuart Milligan, accompanied by Bobby Beukes and Stacey Killian. The men did battle over 10 games; the 8 ladies began midweek. The men’s and ladies’ final positions went down to the wire with Steve van Rooyen’s team in the men’s division leading into the final round ahead of Rob Armstrong’s team on shot difference. Both teams won their final game but the honours went to Van Rooyen with 18 +91 followed by Armstrong on 18 +46. The third place in the men’s division was also a tight affair with the Airforce Base Durban Team (14 +54) winning their last game to leapfrog Dudley Dorrofield’s quartet (14 +49). The ladies’ division had three teams playing the final round in contention, but unfortunately two lost their final game to allow Joan Bruce’s team to take the honours. The final positions: Joan Bruce 10, +70, Marion Crouch 10, +46, S Erasmus 8, +25, L Watson 6, +32.

Congratulations to Jeff Bolt, his bunch of helpers and the Durban Wanderers staff for a well-organised event. It is not easy running a week-long tournament, but for 69 years is a phenomenal achievement. Planning has already begun for the 70th.
JILL AGAIN: Umhlali CC women’s singles championship was played between two top ladies Jill Hackland and Cheryl Mostert, each of whom have won the South African Singles. The lead changes a few times, but at the end Jill had defeated her title 21-17. Cheryl, left and Jill - well done ladies

BLOOMING BOWLS: An interesting use of outdated lawn bowls

The Bowls New Zealand Judicial Committee has reached a decision as to the allegations against Neil Fisher, Colin Rogan and John Walker. The allegations arose when the three men represented Browns Bay at the 2017 National Club Championships in the Triples discipline. The men defaulted the finals of the Triples Championship which it was considered they could reasonably have played. The allegations were the team had breached The Bowls New Zealand Code of Conduct for National Events, as well as the BNZ Constitution. The Judicial Committee conducted a hearing on 21 June 2017, and based on the evidence provided has concluded that the men were in breach of the Code of Conduct clause 3.5 ‘Best Efforts’ and in breach of the Code of Conduct and Constitution clauses relating to misconduct and also bring Bowls New Zealand, Bowls North Harbour and the Browns Bay Bowling Club into disrepute. The Committee wants to stress that not all defaults in a competition would breach these clauses, it is only when the default is unreasonable based on what an ordinary person would consider reasonable. The penalty that has been issued is that the men be suspended from all Bowls NZ Events (including any events held at Region/ Zone, Centre or Club level which may lead to qualification for a Bowls NZ event) and all championship events at any club of which they may be members for a period of 12 months from 21 June 2017. The men are also required to issue apologies. The decision as to cost has been reserved.
OBITUARY

It is with great sadness that we advise the passing of Don McKenzie.

He was an Honorary Life Vice President of Bowls South Africa and a Life Member of Johannesburg Bowls Association. He served our sport with distinction over many years and we remain extremely grateful for his contribution.

We extend sincere condolences to his family and many friends.
