PROVINCIAL SPORTS COUNCIL AWARDS – 2011

It gives us great pleasure to advise that at the recent Western Province Sports Council awards function the Rusthof Secondary School received the Excellence and Resilience Award, which is awarded to a sports club or school whose players have risen against the odds to achieve at the highest level. The winner must be from a community that is struggling with resources.

Rusthof Secondary School, although not having their own bowling green is a school who have embraced bowls as a school sport. Recognition is due to the Strand Bowling Club and the Western Province Development Committee for their initiative in promoting our sport.

The award was based on the schools excellent achievements over the past five years with scholars being selected for the Western Province Under 19 and Under 25 teams and squads.
